“FIFA has always been about innovation, and this is our most significant breakthrough in 25 years,” said Aaron McHardy, Executive Producer at EA SPORTS. “Using the latest in motion capture technology combined with the flexibility of the Frostbite engine, we are delivering more immersive and player-authentic football experiences with a level of physical accuracy we never have before.” Highlights of FIFA 22 include: One of the most accurate, realistic portrayals of the beauty and brutality of the sport
Players' names on jerseys and in-game box displayed with a hi-res photo
Unique attacking movements across all positions, including elite dribblers and second strikers
Over 6,000 animations for dynamic players, meaning more human-like collisions and more realistic ball control
Record-breaking squad depth, with squad management and training based on player attributes and performances
Benchmark gameplay systems, with more advanced passing mechanics for consistent passing and shooting, and more accurate volley shooting
FIFA 22 will be available on Windows PC, Xbox One and PS4 on October 2nd for $59.99.
Dehydroepiandrosterone and its sulfate metabolite in human cerebrospinal fluid as a function of time after osmotic opening of the blood-brain barrier.

Dehydroepiandrosterone (DHEA), which is the precursor of oestradiol, has recently been discovered to be present in human cerebrospinal fluid (CSF). In order to study DHEA in CSF and to examine its relationship to other steroid hormones in CSF, we performed an optimization of the extraction procedure for steroid hormones from CSF. The human DHEA in CSF was found to be present as both unconjugated and sulfate conjugated (with taurodeoxycholate) DHEA. With regard to unconjugated DHEA, it is most likely formed in the brain by neuronal 5 alpha-reductase. Brain production of DHEA and its sulfate metabolite was further investigated by measuring the CSF levels of DHEA and its sulfate metabolite in six healthy young male volunteers on two occasions with at least a 3-week interval in between. During the first test session, a lumbar puncture was performed and the CSF was removed for the determination of unconjugated and sulfate conjugated D
