Each week leading up to the U.S. National Team's FIFA World Cup™ Qualifier in Phoenix, Tim Weah and his teammates will face-off against last year's MLS Cup Champions, Atlanta United. During these matches, both club and academy athletes will be tested across four benchmarks to see how their training, mental, technical and tactical preparations translate to the next level. This is the first installment of the HyperMotion Technology Benchmark Series. Every week before the U.S. team's match in Phoenix, the U.S. Soccer Development Academy (USLDA) and MLS clubs will test their academy athletes in the HMT benchmark across four areas to evaluate their preparation for the World Cup Qualifier: Mental, where the players will be evaluated on mental resiliency, determination and focus. evaluated on ball control, dribbling, receiving, passing and shooting. Tactical, where the players will be evaluated on decision-making, off the ball intelligence, shooting and teamwork. After the game, the teams will analyze the match using the data collected, create a detailed match report and share the data with other academy and MLS teams. This week, Tim Weah, U.S. Soccer's U-15 Men's National Team Development Program (NTDP) goalkeeper, will face-off against FC Dallas' U-16 academy teammates Yawhen Cascaval and Pablo Aranguiz. Both teams are coached by Head Coach James Bowman. - FIFA 22 will feature 3 new modes. FIFA Ultimate Team is the ultimate team mode, where you create and manage your own team full of in-game characters. FIFA Ultimate Draft lets you manage your virtual dream team. Finally, The Journey lets you control the creation and growth of your club. Also in The Journey, we've made it easier than ever to transfer a player from the premier league to your club - thanks to a new upload tool. Those previously too expensive players are now cheap and the market is pushing them hard, and we've made a safer (and more intuitive) purchase of those players.
- A free 'Ultimate Team Expansion' will launch this autumn that will be free to FUT Season Ticket owners, giving you 100 minutes of gameplay to put the new added content through its paces. The first month will be available for trial. "Free" also comes with a free Manager style tutorial and a number of other updates and improvements to Ultimate Team. Players who do not have a Season Ticket will still be able to purchase the expansion pack.
